Statement of CPNI Procedures and Compliance

Statement of CPNI Procedures and Compliance

Cooperative Light & Power Association of Lake County, Inc. ("CLP") is an electric cooperative for a small area in Minnesota. CLP also provides long distance service to its electric customers who wish to presubscribe to this service. CLP does not use or permit access to CPNI to market any telecommunications or non-telecommunications services. Should CLP elect to use CPNI in future marketing efforts, it will follow the applicable rules set forth in 47 CFR Subpart U, including, if necessary, the institution of operational procedures to ensure that notification is provided and customer approval is obtained before CPNI is used or disclosed.

CLP is a small organization, with only one employee assigned to handle all its telecom operations. For this reason, CLP has not undertaken a formal training program regarding CPNI. CLP will now takes steps to ensure that this individual understands and complies with restrictions regarding the use and disclosure of, and access to, CPNI.

CLP has never received a request for CPNI by any law enforcement agency. If CLP receives ^{one} in the future, it will be granted only if a subpoena is provided or if the customer provides written permission. CLP will also maintain a record of all instances where CPNI is disclosed or provided or otherwise allowed access to CPNI.
